DIVISION OF POLICING NEWS

JUNE 2022

From the Chair

As we approach the summer months, I would like to highlight a number of initiatives that the Division has accomplished and to point out a few upcoming deadlines.

First, I am happy to announce that the articles for the DoP's inaugural special issue in our affiliate journal, Policing: A Journal of Policy and Practice are available online. Please see page 8 for more information on the special issue. Thank you to Gene Paoline and Julie Schnobrich-Davis for serving as the Division's first editors for the special issue.

Second, I would like to thank DoP members who contributed to our fundraising call at the beginning of the year. To date, we have raised a total of $2,500 ($1,500 from membership and a $1,000 match from ASC Executive Director, Chris Eskridge). This support allowed us to start a new Student Travel Award for 2022. More information and criteria for this award, along with a thank you to our donors, can be found on page 8.

Third, the deadline for award nominations is July 15, 2022. Please consider nominating division members as a way to recognize important contributions to the field. Based on feedback from our student members, we have a new award category this year: the Outstanding Dissertation Award. Instructions for nominations and the selection criteria for this new award, as well as all other awards (Lifetime Achievement, Distinguished Scholar, Early Career Scholar, Student Article, Outstanding Book, and Outstanding Practitioner) can be found in this newsletter (pages 2-7) and on our website (<https://ascpolicing.org/awards/>).

Fourth, elections for the 2022-2024 Executive Board will take place this September. Please see the call for nominations and position descriptions on page 9. The deadline for nominations is August 15, 2022. The new Executive Board will be instated during the Division's Annual Awards Ceremony and Reception in Atlanta.

Fifth, we held our second Virtual Panel on April 8, 2022. This panel focused on research in the areas of race, gender, and studying the police. These panels have been quite successful and is something that we plan to continue in the future.

Thanks to Janne Gaub, Executive Counselor, and Alexis Rockwell, student representative, for creating, organizing, and moderating the virtual panel series.

Finally, it was great to see DoP members in Chicago. A recap of DoP events is provided in the newsletter. The Division is planning to hold our annual awards ceremony and reception, a DOP featured panel, and DOP sponsored thematic panels in Atlanta.

I hope that everyone has a relaxing summer and we look forward to seeing you all in Atlanta.

Sincerely,

Jason Ingram

Division of Policing Awards

Since its inception, the Division of Policing has bestowed numerous awards to its members annually: Lifetime Achievement, Distinguished Scholar, Early Career, Outstanding Book, Outstanding Law Enforcement Practitioner, and Outstanding Student Paper. It is time again for the Division to solicit nominations for our 2022 awards. Members wishing to nominate an individual for an award should follow the nomination guidelines and submit application materials to Barak Ariel (ba285@cam.ac.uk) by July 15, 2022.

Lifetime Achievement Award

The Lifetime Achievement Award is bestowed to a scholar to recognize their lifetime scholarly achievement in the field of policing. The award is not given for any single research project or study but rather for a body of research developed over one's career. To be bestowed the award the applicant's nomination package should demonstrate a lifetime commitment to high quality scholarly activity and the production of outstanding work that has had a demonstrable impact on the field of policing. The following are the specific requirements for the award and criteria for how nominees will be selected.

Award Criteria

- The nominee should have a record of scholarly activity to include peer-reviewed journal articles, books, final reports and executive summaries, and/or a record of grant/research project activity that has resulted in the generation of knowledge that has influenced the field of policing in meaningful ways
- The nominee should have a record of working with the practitioner community and the application must be able to demonstrate their influence on the field of law enforcement not just via scholarly output, but also via tangible influence on police policy and practice
- The application should demonstrate the nominees record of mentoring younger scholars who have gone on to become influential in the field of policing

Although nominees need not have a record that includes all of the above, the awards committee will consider the breadth of the nominee's achievements against other nominees. Members may not self-nominate. Award decisions will be based on the strength of the nominee's qualifications and not on the number of nomination endorsements received for any particular candidate.

Application Requirements

All nominees' applications must include a current curriculum vitae and a nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above. Where appropriate, numeric tallies for each of the above criteria should be provided.

Distinguished Scholar Award

The Distinguished Scholar Award recognizes an established academic/researcher who has held a Ph.D. degree for at least ten years and is in the middle of their career. The outstanding contributions to the field of policing may consist of a single outstanding work, a series of theoretical or research contributions, or the nominee's accumulated scholarly contributions.

Award Criteria

- The nominee must have held a Ph.D. for at least 10 years
- The application should demonstrate that the single work has made significant contributions to the field of policing if they are being nominated for a single outstanding work
- The application should demonstrate that the theoretical and research contributions have made significant contributions to the field of policing if they are being nominated for a series of theoretical or research contributions
- The application should demonstrate outstanding scholarly contributions by noting relevant publications, grant awards, research reports, books, research projects, or other scholarly outputs if they are being nominated for their accumulated scholarly contributions
- Members may not self-nominate

Award decisions will be based on the strength of the nominee's qualifications and not on the number of nomination endorsements received for any particular candidate.

Application Requirements

All nominees' applications must include the following materials in order to be considered:

- A current curriculum vitae
- An indication of whether the scholar is being nominated for a single outstanding book or work, a series of theoretical or research contributions, or the nominees accumulated scholarly contributions
- A nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above
- One or two publications reflecting the nominee's work

Early Career Award

The Early Career Award recognizes outstanding scholarly contributions to the field of policing by someone who has received his or her Ph.D. degree within the last five years. The outstanding contributions to the field of policing may consist of a single outstanding book or work, a series of theoretical or research contributions, or the recipient's accumulated scholarly contributions during the early years of their careers. The following are the specific requirements for the award and criteria for how nominees will be selected.

Award Criteria

- The nominee must have completed a Ph.D. within the past five years
- The application should demonstrate their outstanding scholarly contributions by noting relevant publications, grant awards, research reports, books, research projects, or other scholarly outputs

Early Career Award (Continued)

Although nominees need not have a record that includes all of the above, the awards committee will consider the breadth of the nominee's scholarly output against other nominees. Members may not self-nominate. Award decisions will be based on the strength of the nominee's qualifications and not on the number of nomination endorsements received for any particular candidate.

Application Requirements

- A current curriculum vitae
- A nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above. Where appropriate, numeric tallies for each of the above criteria should be provided
- One or two publications reflecting the nominee's work

Outstanding Book Award

The Outstanding Book in Policing Award recognizes a monograph (not a textbook, anthology, or edited volume) published in the three calendar years preceding the year in which the award is made. The award honors a text that deserves recognition due to its significant empirical, theoretical, or policy-relevant contributions to the field.

Award Criteria

- The nomination must relate to a monograph and not a textbook, anthology or edited volume
- The award must have been published within three calendar years of the year the award is being made (e.g. for the 2022 Award, the book must have been published in 2019 or later)
- The book must have been published by an academic press or trade publisher
- The nomination letter must make clear why the book deserves recognition by outlining the contributions that it has made to the field of policing, the specific areas to which it contributes, and its status relative to other works in policing
- Nominations may not come from a publisher and members may not self-nominate

Application Requirements

All nominees' applications must include a current curriculum vitae, a nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above, and the books name and publisher.

Outstanding Student Article Award

The Outstanding student Article Award is given for a single outstanding paper on the topic of policing that was written by a student enrolled in a recognized Ph.D. program. It is required that the paper have been published or accepted for publication in an academic journal.

Outstanding Student Article Award (Continued)

Award Criteria

- The nominee must be enrolled in a recognized Ph.D. program at the time of submission
- The paper must have been published in 2021 or 2022 or it must be accepted for publication
- Co-authored papers may be submitted, yet the nominee must be the first author and must have made significant contributions to the paper
- The nomination letter must demonstrate why the paper is deserving of the award and the work's outstanding contribution to the field of policing
- Members may not self-nominate
- If the paper has multiple authors, co-authors may nominate the lead author

Application Requirements

- A current curriculum vitae
- A nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above. The letter should note whether the paper has been published or whether it has been accepted for publication. Evidence of acceptance for publication should be included if the paper has not yet been published.
- If the paper is co-authored, the nomination letter must discuss each author's contribution to the work
- A copy of the paper

Outstanding Law Enforcement Practitioner Award

The award recognizes a law enforcement practitioner who has played an integral role in advancing the field of law enforcement and public safety in innovative ways. This may have been accomplished through a number of methods including but not limited to the following:

- A sustained period of leadership
- Evidence of producing organizational change
- Evidence of leading initiatives that have produced reductions in crime
- Development of partnerships to enhance public safety
- Increasing community participation in public safety
- Collaborative roles with research that have led to significant changes in law
- Implementing major new programs or policies

Application Requirements

All nominees' applications must include a current curriculum vitae and a nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above. Award decisions will be based on the strength of the nominee's qualifications and not on the number of nomination endorsements received for any particular candidate.

**New Award** Outstanding Dissertation Award****

The ASC Division of Policing announces a new dissertation award. Any Division of Policing member who completed their doctoral dissertation in 2021 or 2022 can be nominated for this award. We wish to acknowledge dissertations with a strong potential impact in the policing field.

Award Criteria

- The application should demonstrate an especially high-quality dissertation, with elements of originality, analytical skills, and provide a significant contribution to the policing field.
- The work should be well-written and well-organized and, where relevant, should incorporate reference to both theory and empirical evidence.
- Members may not self-nominate

Award decisions will be based on the strength of the nominee's qualifications and not on the number of nomination endorsements received for any particular candidate.

Application Requirements

All nominees' applications must include the following materials in order to be considered:

- A Dissertation narrative that is no more than 750 words outlining the following elements: (a) research question(s); (b) methods and data used; (c) analytic strategy; (d) findings; (e) theoretical/ research/ practical conclusions.
- A current curriculum vitae
- A nomination letter addressing each of the award criteria noted above

**New** Student Travel Award****

The Division is dedicated to assisting students with the cost of attending the ASC Annual Meeting, permitting the availability of funds. Awardees of the Student Travel Award will be chosen from the students who have submitted abstracts for presentation at ASC. In 2022, the Division will be making three awards of $500 each.

Award Criteria

- Current ASC Division of Policing Student Member at the time of abstract submission
- A currently enrolled undergraduate or graduate student at the time of the ASC conference
- The student is the lead author (and presenter) of the submission

Application Requirements

Applications should include:

- Name

**New** Student Travel Award (Continued)****

- Year of study
- University and program of study (include degree)
- Estimated graduation date
- Presentation title and abstract
- Short statement of financial need, including any other funding (approximately 250-300 words)

Applications should be submitted by July 15, 2022 via email to the Division chair, Jason Ingram (jri004@shsu.edu). Selection will take place after the final program is released by ASC, and all applicants will be notified by September 15, 2022. Travel awards will be disbursed as reimbursement after the conference, and will be recognized at the Division of Policing reception.

Selection Criteria

- Prioritize students without conference funding or with minimal conference funds
- Prioritize students who submitted an abstract to the Division of Policing-Sponsored Student Panels
- Prioritize papers v. posters
- Other considerations can include
  - Progress towards degree completion
  - Underrepresented backgrounds
  - Variety of programs
  - Geography

All Award winners will be invited to receive the award at this year's Division of Policing of the American Society of Criminology reception.

We hope you all can join us!!

Announcements and Updates

Successful Virtual Forum

On Friday, April 8th, 2022, the Division sponsored its second Virtual Panel. This panel, Race, Gender, and Studying the Police, highlighted division members' scholarly achievements and personal research experiences across various areas of policing. Discussion also centered around how the panelists studied race and gender within police agencies from both the academic and practitioner perspectives. The panelists were:

- Dr. Cynthia Lum from George Mason University
- Dr. Lorie Fridell from the University of South Florida
- Dr. Andrea Headley from Georgetown University
- Dr. Daniel Pryce from Old Dominion University

The panel had 90 registered attendees and was well received by both panelists and audience members. We would like to thank the panelists for their assistance and participation in this continued virtual series.

The Division is planning a summer virtual panel to continue this successful endeavor to connect division members and their expertise with students and the public. More information on upcoming panels and other student-centered initiatives to come.

Call for Nominations for 2022-2024 Executive Board

The Division of Policing is currently seeking nominations for all Executive Board positions. The next Executive Board will be elected in September and will serve a two-year term beginning at the ASC Annual Meeting. This year's election committee will include Lisa Growette Bostaph, Boise State University and Christopher Harris, UMass Lowell. Please send nominations with a paragraph explaining the candidate's qualifications to elections committee member Lisa Growette Bostaph at lisabostaph@boisestate.edu by August 15, 2022. Self-nominations are welcome. Please make clear what position you are nominating for. Only paid Division members are eligible to serve on the board and to vote in the election.

Position descriptions are included below:

CHAIR: The Chair will provide executive direction for the Division and will preside over Division meetings. He or she will serve as liaison with the ASC Annual Meeting Program to ensure the inclusion of panels relating to issues on policing in the program as well as bring issues regarding policing research, as decided by the Division, to the attention of the ASC Executive Board and to appropriate ASC committees for their consideration. The Chair will appoint all committees and committee chairs, with the approval of the Executive Board.

VICE CHAIR: The Vice-Chair will preside over Division meetings in the absence of the Chair and shall be empowered to conduct all necessary business of the Division if the office of Chair is vacant or if the Chair is unable to serve. The Vice-Chair will assist the Chair in matters of the Division.

SECRETARY-TREASURER: The Secretary/Treasurer will keep the records and minutes of the Division; manage the membership list for the division, including the email/contact system for members; act as liaison between the division and the Treasurer of ASC; inform the executive board of the Division's balance, debts, credits, etc. and the membership of same at the Division's Annual Membership Meeting; coordinate all purchases for the division, including, for example, awards, annual meeting supplies and receptions, etc. and maintain the website for the Division.

EXECUTIVE COUNSELORS: (3 positions)

Executive Counselors will assist the Chair with executive decisions for the Division, and each will chair at least one committee of the Division.

RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP FOR 2023

We thank you for your support in 2022! Please renew your membership for 2023. If you weren't a 2022 member, we invite you to become a new member! Dues are only $20 a year and dues for students are just $5 annually. You can join the Division of Policing at the same time you renew your ASC membership. Go to www.asc41.com to access the online or paper membership forms.

Division of Policing 2021 Chicago Recap

It was another exciting year for the Division of Policing at the American Society of Criminology's Annual Meeting! We were so happy to be in-person with our members and catch up with friends, mentors, students and colleagues! This year, the Chair, Jason Ingram presented the awards and updates at our annual reception and awards ceremony. The Division of Policing Awards Committee bestowed the Distinguished Scholar Award to William Terrill. The award is granted to a scholar to recognize their outstanding contributions to the field of policing. Dr. Terrill currently serves as the Associate Dean in the Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions, and Professor in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice, at Arizona State University. He has over 50 peer-reviewed publications, authored 3 books, and contributed significant service to the policing field.

Dr. Wesley Skogan gave our keynote address that focused on the same theme as our inaugural special issue in Policing: A Journal of Policy and Practice, which was police-researcher partnerships. Dr. Skogan has been involved with the Chicago Police Department on various projects since the early 1990's, and currently is a member of the Chicago Police Department's Community Policing Advisory Panel. He is pictured above giving his speech to a full room of Division of Policing members and supporters.

We were also thrilled to present awards to all our 2021 winners as well as recognized our 2020 award winners. Some of our award winners live streamed in so they are not pictured above but we are happy to have the technology to be able to meet with our winners across the globe both virtually and in-person.

SAVE THE DATE FOR ASC 2022!!
