

Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice & Criminology at the University of North Carolina, Charlotte.

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology invites applications for an Assistant Professor position beginning August 15, 2024.

Required qualifications. Requirements for the position include: (1) a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology, or a related discipline at the time of appointment, and (2) a commitment to high-quality teaching and mentoring of a diverse student population at the undergraduate and/or graduate levels. We are seeking candidates whose research and teaching focus on quantitative/qualitative research methods, data/crime analytics, and/or technology (e.g., data visualization, geographic information systems, crime analysis). Strong candidates will have a methodological skill set that will broaden the department's existing strengths, either quantitatively or qualitatively. Finalists will be asked to discuss how their teaching practices engage students of different ages, races, ethnicities, backgrounds, identities, and abilities, helping to remove barriers in order to ensure the success of all students regardless of their entry pathway into the university.

The Department. The Department consists of fourteen tenure-track faculty members and four full-time lecturers. B.A. and M.S. degrees are offered in Criminal Justice & Criminology and the Department contributes to the Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Public Policy and the School of Data Science. The department will also partner with a proposed Ph.D. program in Data Science where Crime Analytics will be a domain of concentration. More information about the Department can be found at <http://www.criminaljustice.charlotte.edu>.

Setting. UNC Charlotte is the second largest institution within the University of North Carolina system. This past Fall, UNC Charlotte enrolled 29,551 students and experienced record growth with its incoming first year class and graduate programs. UNC Charlotte is also the fastest growing institution in the UNC System, comprising seven academic colleges offering 171 undergraduate majors in 77 programs leading to Bachelor's degrees, 65 Master's degrees, and 24 Doctoral degrees. UNC Charlotte is proud to have 3,545 passionate and committed faculty and staff members and more than 120,000 living alumni.

Application. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. For more information, regarding the position, and to apply electronically go to <https://jobs.uncc.edu> (position number #002129). Please attach the following documents with your electronic submission:

1. A cover letter that addresses the job requirements including the two (2) required qualifications identified above.
2. A current and complete curriculum vita.
3. Names and contact information for at least three references.

For additional information, please contact Jen Hartman (jhartman@charlotte.edu). Review of applications will begin on October 25, 2023 and will continue until position is filled.

As an EOE/AA employer and an ADVANCE Institution that strives to create an academic climate in which the dignity of all individuals is respected and maintained, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte encourages applications from all underrepresented groups. The candidate chosen for this position will be subject to criminal background checks.
